

Valerie Devi Carpenter

Speaker • Author • Voice & Presence Expert

Helping women feel seen and heard where it matters most.

Valerie Devi Carpenter is a speaker, author, and voice and presence expert whose work bridges women's health and wellbeing, personal empowerment, and professional presence.

Grounded in three overlapping careers—30 years in the performing arts, 20 years in technology, and nearly two decades in the healing arts—Valerie brings together performance skills, communication, sound, and nervous-system awareness to create engaging, experiential presentations. She helps audiences relieve stress, reconnect with themselves, and speak with greater authenticity, confidence, and power.

WHAT EVENT LEADERS SAY

"Valerie had an incredible way to open our EWiT Diamond Forum. She has a rare ability to hold the room, manage the timing beautifully, and bring an audience into a grounded, present state of being. Her session was engaging, experiential, and exactly what we needed to set the tone for the conference. She doesn't simply speak to a room—she changes the energy in it."
